Author: Alix Vaughn

Category: Erotic, Romance, Billionaire Romance

Description: "Be a good girl for us."

When I lose my job and my apartment on the same day, I'm not exactly in a position to say no to a cocky billionaire's bold offer: move into his mansion for a month, train his unruly dog, and earn enough cash to turn my luck around.

But he failed to mention one crucial detail—he has two infuriating, impossible-to-ignore, gorgeous roommates.

Grayson is the devastatingly handsome widower with walls thicker than steel. He is the definition of control and is wound tighter than a rubber band ready to snap.

Then there's Chase, the excitable golden retriever who's equal parts protective and playful. He flirts like it's his full-time job, and I can't help falling headfirst into his charm.

And Cole? Intense, dominant, and devastatingly direct, he's the man who sees every crack in my armor—and makes me want to let him in anyway.

Three powerful men. One intoxicating situation. For the first time, I have something that feels like family. But can I trust that they'll stay when things get messy—or will I end up alone again?
