

The Billionaire's Heart

Author: Annie Carlisle

Category: Romance, Billionaire Romance

Description: From temporary receptionist to a fake fiancée, Mia's life takes a sudden turn when she meets her new boss, billionaire Ian Gallo.

When Mia relocates to the quaint town of Hibiscus Harbor, she seeks a fresh start, leaving behind a cheating ex and dreams that seemed out of reach. She recently started a new job as a temporary receptionist at the exclusive Hibiscus Harbor Country Club, owned by Ian Gallo. When her boss's secretary asks her to fill in as Ian's plus one for a charity gala, she can't resist the opportunity to make some extra cash.

Ian's life is a whirlwind of business deals and high-profile events. But when his planned date is sidelined by an accident, he turns to his secretary to find him a quick replacement. Thrust into the limelight, Mia handles the pressure with grace, even surprising Ian with a spontaneous kiss that sends the media into a frenzy.

Overnight, they become the talk of the town, rumored to be engaged. To secure a crucial business deal, Ian convinces Mia to maintain the charade of their relationship. In exchange, he offers her a chance to fulfill her dream of opening a bridal shop, with a million-dollar investment.

As they navigate interviews and public appearances, the line between pretense and reality blurs. Under the fireworks on the Fourth of July, Ian realizes he no longer wants to pretend. Is Mia ready to take that next step or will she take the money and run?

Dive into this heartwarming contemporary romance where unexpected love blooms amidst the glitz and glamour, proving that sometimes, fairy tales do come true.

Total Pages (Source): 93

This story currently has no chapter content.