Author: Barbara Ankrum

Category: Romance, Western

Description: Drive, she said...

When Isabella Stanton's Dallas society wedding becomes the most humiliating day of her life, there's only one thing to do: run—hard to do in a wedding dress. She begs a ride from the handsome wedding limo driver offering him a huge bonus to help her escape. After a lifetime of trying to please everyone but herself, Isabella has no plans, no job, and no set destination. Her only certainty—she can never go home again.

Will Hardesty understands escape. Growing up heir apparent cowboy on his family's ranch in Marietta, Montana, he left behind his difficult father to play football in college and the NFL. After an injury costs him his career and his wife, he buys a limo company, focusing on business not romance. Initially he thinks he's Driving Miss Crazy, but even his inner cynic can't resist his adorable passenger who's funny and consistently finds the bright side of everything.

But will an emergency detour to his family's ranch coupled with a convenient lie about their blossoming relationship be the romantic nudge they both need or their undoing?
